High School Coaches:

Make the Best Use of your WIAA Contact Days

The Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic Association (WIAA) allows for up to 5 "contact days" where you are allowed to coach your own student athletes. (Per WIAA rules, "contact days" must be completed before July 31st.) This tournament - with 2 games each day - is the perfect way to make the best use of 2 of your contact days in preparation for your 2009 HS season. *

*August 10th is the official WIAA start date for boy's high school soccer. The format for this tournament has been approved by the WIAA and is "legal."

8 vs. 8 is a fast-paced wide-open game that will challenge every player's technical and tactical abilities as well as match fitness.

What a great opportunity to assess your own players right before official practices start!

That's why many high school coaches are enthusiastic about entering this tourney!

With a maximum of 14 players per team (that's less than $20 per player!) it is possible for schools to register multiple teams in this event!

But hurry - get your team entry form (on the reverse side of this sheet) in today - as this tournament is sure to fill quickly!
